A Mission of Love:

Here at KnifePurveyor Inc., collecting custom knives is our passion. We understand that for some of us, our hobby is a family affair.

However, more often than not, our families have little interest in our collections, and have even less knowledge of the potential value of our knife collections. As collectors, we know our collection intimately, but does your family and your potential heirs realize it's true value?

“It is time to get serious about your collection”, your knives can represent an important part of you net worth.

KnifePurveyor Inc. will ensure that the value of your collection properly reflects current market trends and is ultimately maximized for your heirs and beneficiaries fulfilling your legacy wishes with this planned exit strategy.

Often we hear of collections being sold for pennies on the dollar through other venues. This unfortunate reality, is avoidable by having KnifePurveyor Inc. appraise your knife collection now and utilizing "A Mission of Love" partnership.

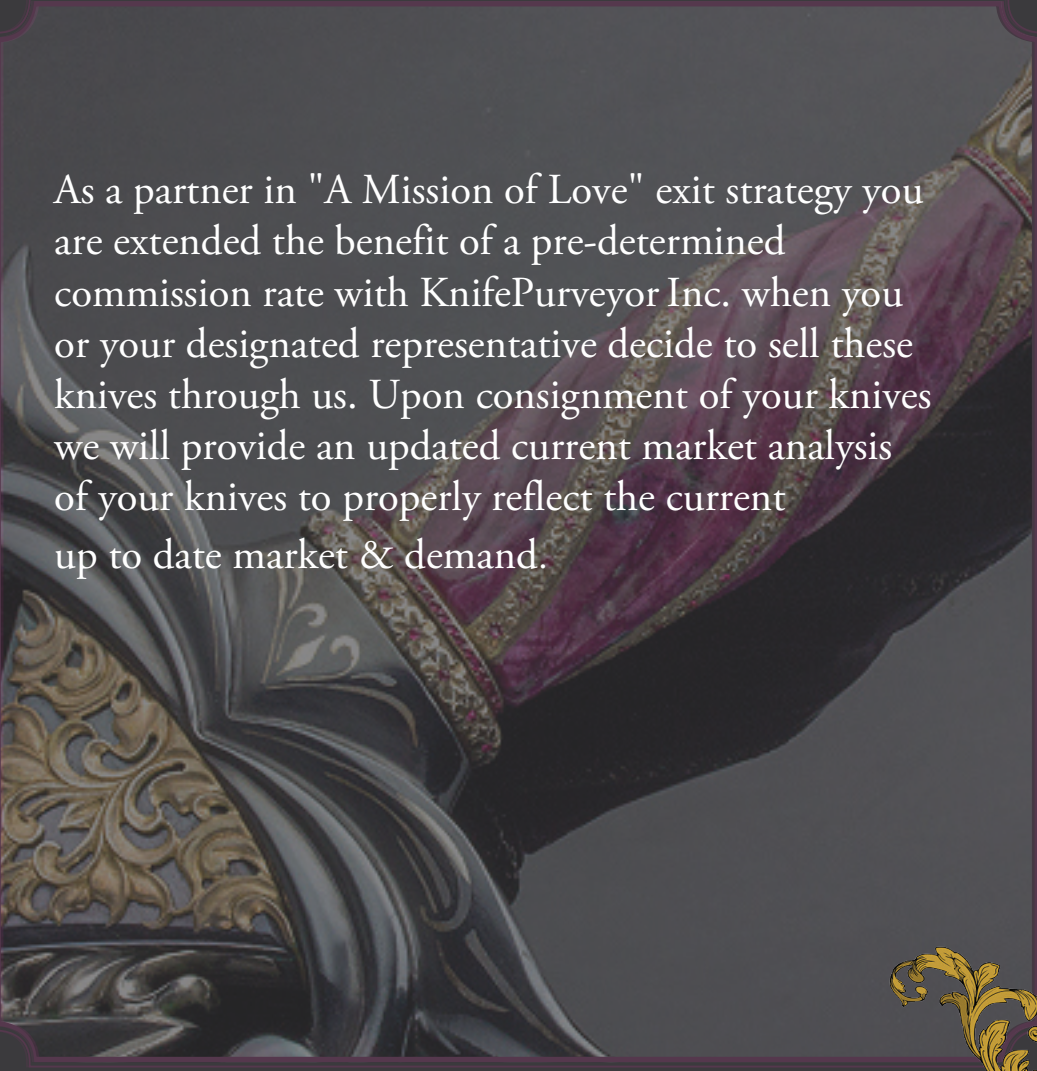

We appraise, inventory and showcase your knife collection.

In clear, practical terms, an appraisal of your collection by Michael Donato (KnifePurveyor Inc.) a leading expert in the custom knife industry since 2001, will provide you with:

- A Detailed Inventory and Photographic Record of your Collection
- Current Market Value Determination
- An Exit Strategy for Your Collection
- Pre-negotiated Terms to Facilitate the Smooth Sale of Your Knives for You/Your Heirs.
- A Letter of Intent for Your Estate Planning

An appraisal by KnifePurveyor.com can be used to showcase your collection as well as to serve as documentation for insurance purposes. It also provides your family an established relationship with us for help when needed.

As a partner in "A Mission of Love" exit strategy you are extended the benefit of a pre-determined commission rate with KnifePurveyor Inc. when you or your designated representative decide to sell these knives through us. Upon consignment of your knives we will provide an updated current market analysis of your knives to properly reflect the current up to date market & demand.

Our "Mission of Love" will ensure that you are confident that our exit strategy will ultimately provide for an easier, fairer way to distribute money rather than the collectibles.

We, at KnifePurveyor Inc. will manage the sale of your collection and ensure that your heirs are properly compensated to reflect current market values.

We are unique in providing these services for you, our clients and friends. A completed appraisal allows KnifePurveyor, Inc. to easily and quickly offer your knives for resale to our clientele, when you/your designated representative decide to sell them. We at KnifePurveyor Inc. stand ready to assist.

We are always available to you (and your family) to discuss our "Mission of Love". Rest assured your knives and family are safe in the hands of KnifePurveyor Inc.
